

Name of Project	Water Treatment Pilot Plant
Location	Surmont - Joint with HPD – Veolia Water, Solutions & Technologies
Project Summary	Installation of a ceramic water treatment project at Conoco Surmont SAGD plant located near Fort McMurray Alberta. Ceramic pilot plant consisted of three forty foot containers. One electrical control room container and two pump storage containers for sampling and cleaning. This was a temporary facility that treated produced water to remove oil by ultrafiltration using a ceramic membrane technology.
Gallery	Water Treatment Pilot Plant at Surmont

